Craig Mensinger

Craig Mensinger graduated from Central Columbia in 1973, he was a multi-sport varsity athlete at Central Columbia, earning letters in baseball, basketball, football, and bowling. While participating in athletics at Central Columbia, Craig had the good fortune to be coached by his father Claire Mensinger, Don Engle, Duane Ford, Jerry Devlin, and Richard Michael. Craig was the team captain his senior year for the following sports: football, baseball, and basketball. He was a first team All-Star selection during his senior year in basketball as well as baseball. Craig was part of the 1973 District IV baseball championship team. Craig was also team captain for the Bloomsburg University Husky Baseball team during his junior and senior year. He was member of the 1978 Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference Championship in baseball while competing at Bloomsburg University. Craig graduated with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Education and spent the next forty years teaching business management and coaching basketball and baseball at Ocean City School District located in Ocean View, NJ until retiring in 2018.

Steve Crawford

Steve Crawford is a 1984 graduate of Central Columbia where he was an outstanding two-sport athlete. Steve excelled in basketball as well as track & field. He earned numerous varsity letters in four years of athletics here at Central Columbia. During his athletic career he was a four-year starter in both of his sports. In 1984, Steve earned District IV medals in track and field in the high jump as well as the high hurdles. Steve was a dominant basketball player during his high school career where he was an outstanding 1,000-point scorer for the basketball team. He was an inspiring athlete to his teammates as well as younger individuals. Steve earned his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Business from Lycoming College and his Master's-Degree in Environmental Pollution Control from The Pennsylvania State University. Currently, Steve is the President of G & M Crawford Company and the Central Columbia School Board President.

It's hard to believe 18 years have passed. You have accomplished so much in life already. I know you will do very well in college. Follow your dreams and you will succeed at whatever you do. We are so proud to say you are our daughter.
Congratulations, Love always,
Mom and Dad

Christina,
I can't believe you are graduating from high school. It seems like just yesterday when we were silly little kids. We have shared so many memories together and I know we will share many more to come. I will always be there for you and good luck with college,
Love, your big sis Nicole

Kristina Tewell

Kristina,

Congratulations! Wow, it's hard to believe it's 2011 already. It seems like just yesterday our "Little Yellow Hair" was going to her first day of Preschool and now you're all grown up and going to college! We are so proud of you. You're such a strong, beautiful young lady with a giant heart. As a new chapter in your life begins, always remember to believe in yourself and know that your family will be there to "cheer" you on no matter what! We are blessed to have you as a daughter and sister.

Love, Mom, Dad and Frankie

Alissa Dewalt

Alissa....You are truly a blessing to our family. We are so proud of all your accomplishments and the person you have become. Keep that smile, wonderful spirit, and generous heart. Stay true to yourself and always remember we love you and wish you a successful happy life. Follow your dreams!

Love, Mom & Dad

Nathan Murdock

Nathan,
Congratulations!! You've made it!! All your hard work and determination has paid off. Words cannot express how proud we are of you. Good luck in the future, we will always be here for you.
Love, Mom, Dad and Nicole
