LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Bonnie Lee - I will all those boring shorthand classes to Anne Hess and to Theresa McCormick, a bottle of anything she wants (as long as I can have some.)

Paul Kroschewsky - I will the job as editor of next years yearbook to a junior who doesn't know what he's in for. To every student I will a warning to never trust anybody who gets paid to work here. And to a certain segment of the faculty I will plenty of parties for them to enjoy gossiping about!

Marie Augustine - I will to Mr. Engle a "good" Steve Grasley. To Steve, I will a "magic" wand to keep him out of trouble and someone to help him with his homework. And to Janet Yost, an entire free week of nights out of the house so she doesn't have to "sneak" or pretend she's going to a basketball game or to a friend's party, and my watergirl abilities to anyone screwy enough to get yelled at by Coach Rishkofski and the referees at the same time.

T.J. Schutt - I will my softball position to Deb Criqui; and my driving record (including mini-bikes) to any fool willing to take it.

Melanie Thomas - I will my Myrtle mask and chest protector to Johnson, who will need it, and my chair in band to Fedder, lotsa-luck.

Lester Vincent - I will my great golfing ability to Scott Edwards (I'm sorry, Scott) and the curse of Lisa Arcus to Joe Woodring.

Sharon Beagle - I will to Mr. Hartman a less sentimental and less accident-prone girl's basketball team. To everyone on the team, a State Championship (20-0), and a year's supply of "takes"! Rhonda's "star" shirt to Loni Nevil, and my banana pajamas and gullibility to Karen (Mac) and Di.

Sally Sitler - I will Lisa Hopkins, about 5 more inches in height and to Joni Crawford all my talent as a scorekeeper. Also, good luck to next years girl's basketball team.

Bonnie Knorr - I will to Uncle Bud a trip to the Penn Harris Motor Inn and the State Championship with the girl's basketball team next year, to Mr. Ford a second baseman who can stay off her tail, and to Nutsy locker 202 so she can finally have a low locker.

Deby Everett - I will my hockey stick to Teresa Kozak and hope she has a pair of stilts. To Loni Nevil I leave all the rebounding and my friendship with Steve Mazonkey. To Deb Yank my corner of the key and all the black and blue marks. To Karen Johnson my time in the whirlpool, to Wendy Worthington my seat on the bench next to Mr. Hartman. To Ann Schultheis the softball scorebook and to Deb Criqui all of Mr. Ford's jokes. My uniform number "42" to anyone that can fill it.

Cindy Garrison - I will the 74-75 Cheerleaders a clique (who talk about everyone), D. Zeck an etiquette book, to Mr. J. Hartman a secretary who enjoys her work and to Missy a senior shorthand class that likes to party!!

Marty Booth - I will Colleen Achy all my typing errors from Missy's class.

Cindy Zeisloft - I will Janet Hobe my BIG mouth and the ability to control the colorguards! (Plus not to get flustered when Mr. Zech yells.) To Coach Joe, the patience to put up with Todd! (Hey - I did not!) To Mike Talanca the guts to keep on skipping! Also to Coach the ability to have fun in extracurricular activities like I do!! To my brother Todd - my fantastic brains and grades to get on the honor roll!!!

Anne Ehmer - I will 100 erasers to a certain member of the hockey team who always seems to borrow everyone else's.

Dottie Allen - I will my Native Son paperback to anyone who can stomach it, and a bucket to anyone who can't, but takes Black Lit. anyway!

Lori Sitler - I will Mr. Cortwright to Cathy Laubach.

Ginny Dreisbach - I will my locker to anyone that wants it.

Rex Greenly - I will my intelligence, good looks, fantastic personality, and great sense of humor to anyone in the school who needs them and God only knows how many people need them.

Kathy Smith - I will D. E. job to some poor creature who doesn't know how to count. I also will to Mr. John, my nutty sister, and to Mr. Conner a big box of candy.

GOOD BYE! FAREWELL... PARTING IS...

Glenda Creasy - I will the best of luck to Jan Longenberger as next year's drum major-ette, to Kim Ferraro sanity to get through her senior year.

Sue Lehive - I will to Wendy Worthington, Pam Corson, and Nancy Laidecker, strength to withstand their final year. And a warning to all underclassmen: Don't try to break down the structural relationship between a teacher and a student because it just doesn't work.

Lori Nevil - I will my "height" and all my "athletic ability" to my little sister? And to Patty Perkins I will the 2nd period Box (cube) Business, Pam Cass you can have all the Birds in Flight.

Jeanette Rauch - I will to all underclassmen a more sensible yearbook staff. And my seat in 1st period Economics, where you can sit and watch the clique cheat on tests.

Gena Zoppetti - I will my white flag to my sister Val, my paint brush to Mrs. Weir, my kissing gloss to Glod, and my "Good Luck" to Eileen Burke.

Jeff Mausteller - I will my tank to Joe, Bob, and Bill to get down off of the mountains after the parites and a life size Roy Rogers doll for Dick Staber to take to bed with him. Also to Coach Joe a fire hydrant to remind him of New York.

Brent Bankus - I will my good head to Snake-in-the-Grassley, to Mr. Engle, Mr. Rishkofski, Mr. Ford and Mr. Post another "Rock Head" and last but not least the Imperial Japanese Kamakazi Corps will rise again (someday). To Irv, from Maders with love.

Tom Martz - I will Mr. Conner all my nair I'm losing in August and to Mr. James Hartman I will my razor to him so he can shave, and finally to Mr. Thomas I hope you have fun next year with the seniors.

Tara Binder - I will my "bark" to Mr. Shutt and to all the "unfortunate" faculty members who dealt with me, I will my "THANKS."

Harland Shoemaker - I will my seat in physics to any junior who has a lot of "momentum" and would like to be "enlightened" in this subject. And to my sister I will much enjoyment in Speech I.

Jim Terwilliger - I will to Gena Oshman a free school lunch; to Chris Seidel I leave a smile; to Kim Ferraro I leave my Shakespeare book; and to Mrs. Weir I leave paintbrushes, paint, and a pair of shades.

John Schauer - I will that anybody who wants agriculture as a living to take Mr. Everett's courses, and to those non-believers to find the Saviour as I did.

Margaret Murphy - I will to Mr. Hock someone else to sit in my seat in Physics and Calculus to bother him, to Buddy Hartman another 5'2" center to take my place, to Mr. Kelly, two intellectual seniors to take Wenda's and my place in German I.

Joan Norquest - I will to "Shadow" a dry field and someone dependable, to B.P. anyone "in the mood", to Mike Gray a leak in his gas tank and a spare set of keys, to Larry one free hustling lesson and part 2 of Jodie's dream and to Mrs. Devlin a promising young Hemingway to write stories for next year's "Leviathan."

Sharon Garringer - I will to Miss Chmarney my Red Velvet Cake, and to Barb Broda my bowling average.

Christine Kundrick - I will my seat in Mrs. Riale's School Service class to anyone who wants it.

Sue Scarance - I will Mr. Conner one ton of candy, R. Riale my black underwear, Dave Kliss the ability to pass Mr. Conner's test, Mr. Killian a life size poster of the real "Twiggy", and Mr. Engle can have his coat hanger back.

Virginia Andreas - I will my seat in marketing II to any person dumb enough to want it.

Randy Miller - I will to Mr. Sarge my outstanding charm and sex appeal. To Mr. John a wreath labeled R.I.P., finally, to Gail Matter, a poster of Al Pacino in a bathtub. To Barb, longer legs so she can reach me.

Darla Oman - I will Mrs. Riale all my spare time to work in her room on F.H.A. projects.

Robin Bogart - I will to Mr. John my empty seat in his accounting classes, to my brother, Terry, my ability to get along with "Tricky", and to Cathi Sarnoski my sense of humor.

Bridget Kelly - I will my sister Susan a book of Etiquette, I will Mrs. Weir a 6 foot leading man.

Shelley Hasson - I will to C.H.S and faculty my sister Nancee, wishing C.H.S. all the luck in the world. To Mr. Ford, Engle, Post, and Conner the thought of me as I am now and the thought 10 years from now when I come back to visit. To Mr. Killian a map of Israel with the word Victory across the front. To Mr. Hammer my swimming ability, Specially my free, back, and breast stroke!

To Kathy Darr, I leave Bryan Carlin, Mrs. Riale permanent number "1" at Gensemers, and Miss Gentile another spotter and diver as good as me!

It's Only the Beginning

Kay Pope - I will to Cathy Carter a very successful trip on the wrestling mat next year, and a psychiatrist to analyze those red dreams of hers. To Tuffy I will a pair of boxing gloves. To Mr. Post a zoom lens to get the whole picture. To Dave Adams a real Spook to take my place.

Donna McGaw - I will Mrs. Riale my charming father and all of his yarn from Magee's. To Mrs. Weir my ability to write compositions with correct grammar and have it in on time. To anybody who gets the back corner table in Chem. Lab. the ability to swim, and to Harland Shoemaker my abilities at reasoning.

Kathy Kunowski - I will to Mike Gray a rodo-relaxer, and vibrator, to Frank Drumm a "stick in the mud." Also to Mr. Engle a Don Rickles joke book and to Mr. Rupert a Charles Atlas "exercis kit."

Wenda Hartzell - I will Mrs. Riale a bottle of white shoe polish, Mr. Kelly two more intellectual seniors in his German I class. Mrs. Maue someone in French IV next year, and Dr. Scarpino all my Palmistry, ESP, and astrology books.

Kathy Brown - I will to Coach Ford a "straight" basketball team next year and a group of freshman girls as great as we were in softball. And to Jim Hollister a girl shaped as a tennis racket, maybe then he'd look at her.

Barbara Tedesco - I will Elise Weiss all my etc's. I leave to Mr. B. Hartman my mink "Hermie". I will Mrs. Whitenight my "super bad" sign in remembrance of all the softball games we "tried to" play.

Tim Potter - I will my hornyness to cherry Talanca and my wrestling ability to anyone willing to take it.

Jim Crawford - I will my green van to Mr. Thomas, my small plantation in China to Cindy Gass and me to Elise Weiss.

Jim Hollister - I will my last can of "chunk-light tuna" and a wreath of "holly" to Mr. Post. To Steve Bright a letter opener to open those "mysterious" notes that he receives so often, and to Miss "Margaret" Thomas I will my tennis racket and a can of Sears 99¢ tennis balls. To Mr. Rishkoiski another person to keep the bulletin board "out of date" and finally to Kathy Brown I will a couple of boys to mix with all those girls at Misericordia. "There is no future in this."

Ron Zimmerman - I will my messy locker to the next poor fool who gets it.

Sherre Ent - I will my softball ability to Michelle Talanca, and also a suit of armor for all those line drives.

Steve Bright - I will to Mr. Post, a "stump" remover, so that he can move up in the world; to Ed McGrady, a can of Gillette "Dry Look" so that he can look his best at next year's sporting events; to Greg Norton, a crash helmet when he rides with Mr. Spaid.

Gail Matter - I will to Bryon Powlus a steering wheel on which I bumped my head when I raised my head.

Wade Whitfield - I will to the cafeteria for one of next years desserts, if they don't have it already, fried umbilical cords sprinkled lightly with ground up toe jam, to R. O. one of my best baby pictures and to the owner of that beautiful new green car, my greatest and toughest spot of envy!

Cindy Shelhamer - I will to my little sister (when the time comes) all my important Wednesday morning doctor appointments, a couple of good breakfasts at Hotel Magee, and brains enough to keep out of Berwick and far away from their football players. To "Bonnie" Rupert many more exciting nights at the apartment, and to "Tough Man" Ford, a life size punching doll of Gary Pursel to calm himself on all those nights he wishes he could spend at the Hilltop in peace.

Chris Dippel - I will my "attitude" to Mr. Staber and my "Chip On My Shoulder" to Mr. Shutt!!

Lori Sitler - I will Mr. Cortwright to Cathy Lambach.

Dottie Allen - I will my Native Son paperback to anyone who can stomach it, and a bucket to anyone who can't but takes Black Lit. anyway!

Joe Powlus - I will all my late passes to Vince Pitchford and all my lunches at Carrolls and Charlies to Mike Talanca. I will my football jersey to Daren Huber, and my non-wrestling ability to Ed McGrady and I will never regret having to leave this place.

Cindy Guther - I will four free but illegal excuses to Wilkes-Barree to Carol S. and three friends in their senior year; one heavy date with Gail M. to a lucky Tim D.

Sharon Crawford - I will to next years girls basketball team and Coach Hartman all the luck it takes to go on and win the States!!

"74" Class of SEVENTY-FOUR "74"

Sharon Shoemaker - I will my seat in marketing class to anyone who wants to watch some stupid head with dirt under his nose and play with his stupid over-head all period. Can you do anything else but play with that thing?

Bob Keck - I will if she'll let me!

Jane Knorr - I will Janet a drivers manual for further instruction on the gears of a car. My brother better times than I have had.

Cindy Gass - I will to Mike Morucci 180 free passes to go to Charlie's during lunch and one full paid weekend at the airport. To Deb Criqui a whistle, badge, and a gun so that she may replace her good buddy, George Cain, when he resigns. To Mrs. Rakich a successful wrestling team next year, and to the hockey team a Columbia County Championship.

Shelly Brown - I will my ability to stay out of trouble to Todd Z., I will my special lunch privileges and private stock (courtesy Hervey Thomas) to Cathy Pepper. All my hockey injuries, and late passes to Elise Weiss.

Michael Miller - I will a warning to all students at Central to stay away from drugs and all the other nasty things. A high time to anyone who wants it. Lots of love and kisses to Davey Conner for being such a nice fella. And a thumb of the nose to the whole institution. Bye? Bye?

Betty Blumenstine - I will to Mr. Rupert an efficient typist for next year's High Line that has fingers fast enough and patience enough to take my place in the dungeon of his back room! And to Mike Gray, my parking space in the front row (if he can get here early enough to occupy it.) To Mr. Hammer a more "unified" swim team, and to Mr. Conner flowing streams and lots of little fishies. (see ya at the fountain!)

Viki Williams - I will to Barb Broda one trip to New York City with one legal I.D. card, to Russ Murphy, a course in "How to be Aggressive," and to any girl lucky enough to make cheerleading. I leave you, Mrs. Riata.

Jim Hummel - I will 3 boxes of onion crackers and 2 jars of dill pickles to Carwin Unger, eat them in good health! All my love and volumes of "Sherlock Holmes and Watson" to Amber! And my entire life to the greatest, Jesus Christ, because He gave His for me.

Sheryl Richie - I will to Mr. Post, one gross (get the pun Post?) of knee high stockings, to Mr. Rishkofski, a young lady to take the place of Mary Crane in his life, to two very childish seniors I will two pair of ear muffs to help them to mind their own business and last, but not least, I will Becky Yost a deck of cards so she'll have something to do on the basketball buses next year.

Joanne Bradley - I will to Janet Gensemer my locker, because it's right next to Mr. Rakich's room. I also will my front row seat in Mrs. Moore's class to Gary Deebel, who only missed it by one this year.

Debbie Tarlacky - I will Carol Cole good "friends", Mr. Conner a box of Kleenex, Cindy Kriner, a good hiding place, Diane Brown, a new laugh, and to John Graham a female wrestling team all his own, "witch" will never give up.

Rick Brown - I will my place in the work-study program to anyone who doesn't need money and my place in Mr. Shutt's class to anyone that's nuts, and any of my notes to the garbage can.

Bob Underhill - I will Powlus, Squib, and Hartzell the wine cellar for proper use only and to the mountain parties a chair lift.

Melody Slusser - I will to D.W. all the fun we had at the Farm Show. And to T.Z. my Danville buddy! And to Tim McGaw another fun Sunday!

Theresa Zajac - I will to anyone stupid enough to try to get away with the things I did - better luck than I had, and to M.S. a speedometer that works.

Craig Glodfelter - I will a trunk warmer to Packy Derm D... to Becky and Flipper a couple of tickets to a boring B.S.C. basketball game, so they can leave early and go - - - - - ; a shoulder-harness jock to Snake. To Mr. Post a picture of the hatchet arm of "tough boy" Glodfelter that committed the SUPER STAR'S 100th foul; to Skipper Ford I will my last pack of cigarettes 'cause I finally quit.

Tim Potter - I will my hornyness to Cherry Talanca and my wrestling ability to anyone willing to take it.

Patti Harvey - I will all my good luck to Cindy Titman, plus my front seat in Engle's room. I also will my etc's., etc's.,..... to Janet Pegg. (Good Luck)

Class Prophecy

It's a beautiful day in Pennsylvania. This is "Streak" Wambach in Bloomsburg for the 20th reunion of the "74" class of Central Columbia High School. Already the old clique has separated from the rest of the group, and the party has begun.

The reunion is being held in the ball room of the Elks Home, which was originally the mansion built by millionaire Steve Sands. Mr. Sands is over in the far corner chatting with political millionaire Carwin Unger. They are conferring with Lori Nevil, a brilliant bank executive at the First National Bank. She is telling them a new way to fudge on their Income Tax.

Glenda Creasy, a librarian at Mifflinville High School, is arguing with Suzanne Lehive, teacher at the institution, about the book, "Everything You Always Wanted To Know About Teeth, But Were Too Afraid To Ask," by Doctor Gena Zoppatti.

Jeanette Rauch is fixing the phone so the group can call out for chicken. Kathy Smith and Rex Greenly, famed accountants, are busy figuring out the bill for extra gravy and Cokes.

Sheree Ent blows the blues out of her bugle to entertain the group while Kathy Kunowski sings in an assortment of 12 different languages. Lester Vincent forms a trio when he joins in with his Moog Synthesizer.

WAIT!! There's excitement in the corner. Jim Hollister has just broken a tennis racket over Margret Murphy's head. The dispute seems to be because Murph, a Phys. Ed. teacher, redesigned Hollister's entire tennis defense, and he lost his match with Billie Jean. Ling shortly there after.

The paramedic squad, Bonnie Knorr, Kathy Brown, Barb Tedesco, Donna McGaw, Bonnie Lee, and Kay Pope rush to Murphy's side. But Army nurse Viki Williams takes charge and sterilized the wound with a bottle of Cherry Vodka she had hidden under her coat.

Lester Vincent has just blown up his Moog Synthesizer while trying to drown out Kathy's kalidescope of sound. Electronics genius Wayne Evans busies himself trying to fix the smoking keyboard. Last year it was reported that his synthesizer has been sabotaged and criminologist Sheryl Rische steps forward to investigate. Sheryl's secretaries, Joanne Bradley and Deb Tarlecky, take down minute details about the case. Accountant Steve Bright surveys the damage of the synthesizer and reports the tally to Vincent.

Now that the synthesizer is broken, Jim Hummel on the trumpet and Amber Taiteworth with her flute show up to continue the effort to drown out Kunowski.

Kathy Kunowski has just passed out from lack of air. Registered nurses Bridget Kelly, Cindy Gunther, and Patti Harvey thumb through a medical dictionary to find some clue as to why Kunowski passed out. After conferring with specialist Indira Bawa, the group forms their hypothesis. Kunowski is suffering from "men-ites." Medical technician Wenda Hartzell rushes Kunowski to the hospital to see if the hypothesis is correct.

The secretarial pool, Cindy Garrison, Marie Augustine, Anne Eaker, Cindy Zeisloft, Marty Booth, and Sharon Crawford are crowded around the water cooler gossiping about Kunowski's mishap. Jane Knorr, beautician, is giving the girls some tips on the latest hair styles.

The door swings open. Shelly Brown and Cindy Gass, professional horse-back riders, approach with trophies in hand. Veterinarian Betty Blumenstine is outside, checking the prize horses for any minor injuries.

The meal is served. Chicken is courtesy of John Schauer, local farmer, and was prepared by home economist Doby Everett.

Prophecy

Harland Shoemaker lead the group in a moment of prayer. Shelley Hasson, a teacher at Saint Cyril, adds a Hail Mary. Captains Brent Bankus, Tom Martz, Jeff Mausteller, and WAC Tara Binder salute in honor of the occasion.

The hour is late, the fun and games are over, and the Class of '74 parts again until the reunion in the year 2014.

Only one lonely soul remains. As Mike Miller, janitor, sweeps up the remnants of the party, he thinks of his recent Presidential defeat. It was a close run, but the best shines through. As Miller locks up, he closes the golden doors on the portrait of the United States President Ed McGrady.

This has been "Streak" Wamback. It's a beautiful day in Pennsylvania.

Can

You

Imagine??

- Candy Z. being shy and innocent?
- Gena wearing a T-shirt?
- Everyone minding their own business?
- Squad acting like a person instead of a pollock?
- The reunion of the Class of '74?
- Lester Vincent having fun at the prom?
- Scott Eroh eating without moaning?
- Mike Criqui, John Lang and Jim Crawford streaking?
- Mike Miller skinny - dipping?
- The Highline coming out on time?
- Chris Ehmer not pumming?
- Shelly B. and Chubs not fighting?
- A quiet Vicki Williams?
- Bob Underhill acting intelligent?
- Jim Hummel without Amber Teitsworth?
- Debbie Evans showing up for Journalism class?

Last Will and Testament (cont. pg. 13)

Amber Teitsworth - I will my I.D. card to Caroline just in case she ever gets lost again, my best luck to Mr. Fatterman to help him get through his future years at C.H.S., because he's one of my kin; my love and 7 gymbags to Randy so he can make it to B.J.U. in one piece this fall; and most of all, I will my life to Christ because He's the best friend I've ever had.

John Lang - I will my ability to skip without getting caught to anyone (everyone) who is bummed out by school and the teachers.

Indira Bawa - I will to Mr. Conner, another efficient and dependable editor, to Dr. Scarpino, a fellow Italian, to Mike Gray another wallet filled with self portraits, and to my brother, lots of luck.

Ron Zimmerman - I will a messy locker to the next poor fool who gets it.

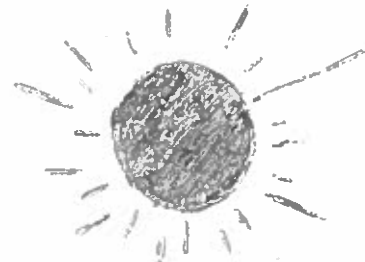

Carwin P. Unger - I will all of my lost, gone, hair to Mr. Mensinger. And if he's not greedy, Mr. Everett can have some too.

Steve Sands - I will everything I own to any S.O.B. that wants it.

Wayne Evans - I will Coach Rakich a 155 pounder with stronger ankles, my jump rope and headgear to my brother, to Mr. Conner a student with thick skin to endure his puns and open windows and to Mr. Rupert new fresh air and water boy to run the press.

Have a

Hot Summer!

GOOD-BYE

YELLOW BRICK ROAD

A rainy afternoon led to an enchanted evening on Friday, May 17, as the Junior Class presented the 1974 edition of the Junior-Senior Prom.

"Good-Bye Yellow Brick Road" was the theme chosen for the salute to this year's seniors. Members of the classes of 1974 and 1975 experienced an evening in the gym, which was decorated with enchanted castles, and yellow brick roads. "The Sound Commission" entertained for the evening, with a mixture of both soft and rock music.

The first couple of hours flew by and soon it was time to crown the Queen.

Excitement spread throughout the gymnasium as Junior Class President, Larry Ivay, announced Shelly Brown, Glenda Creasy, Shelley Hasson, Maria Scarpino, Cindy Zeisloft, and Gena Zoppetti as members of the court. Applause filled the air when Sue Scarinca was named Queen of this year's Prom.

Throughout the remainder of the evening, couples drifted away from the land of enchantment to enjoy the night's activities.
